DINGYAO PORCELAIN VASE

$14,800

c. 1100 • Hebei, China • Porcelain • Collection #HIL005

H: 15.5" Dia: 8.0"

Dingyao porcelain, often called Ding ware, is famous for its creamy-white coloring, refined forms, and low-relief surface patterning. Ding ware was produced in the kilns of Hebei province since the Song dynasty (690-1279) and is characterized by light stoneware and glassy, ivory glazes. This Dingyao vase is molded in two halves with a key fret border, decorated with delicate lotus and scrolling vine motifs in low relief.
