FRUIT OF THE EARTH OFFERING COFFER

$2,880

c. 1900 • Mongolia • Paint, Pine • Collection #BJFF155

W: 46.0" D: 15.75" H: 33.5"

Used as a storage chest for clothes and personal belongings, this early 20th-century painted coffer likely doubled as an altar in a provincial family home. The colorful panels are painted with scenes of the traditional offerings that once sat upon the altar, including pomegranates, censers, incense, and flowers. Framed by a brilliant red finish and adorned with brass hardware, the hand-painted cabinet provides rustic texture and color to the home.
