GILT WOODEN DEITY

$728

c. 1950 • Indonesia • Pigment, Wood • Collection #CMKH114

W: 12.0" D: 6.25" H: 26.75"

Likely representing a divinity figure, this expressive wooden figure possesses both a sense of whimsy and potent energy. Remnants of pigment suggest that this sculpture was once accented with vivid color, further imbuing the figure with a powerful presence. Standing on a stylized lily pad, the figure holds an animated stance and sports a lush beard and frenzied hairstyle, possibly representing an ascetic aspect of the Hindu god Shiva or a Buddhist guardian.
