IRON CLAD KEEPER'S CHEST

$2,480

c. 1800 • Shanxi, China • Iron, Poplar • Collection #Z052

W: 21.0" D: 14.0" H: 13.75"

This richly aged early 19th-century keeper's chest is from Shanxi province, China and would have been used to safely store one's valuables. The original hand forged iron hardware was designed exclusively for function, but we love the way it beautifully punctuates the simple form of this footed box.
