LARGE PICKLING JAR

$1,680

c. 1850 • Northern China, China • Ceramic • Collection #PR0293

H: 35.75" Dia: 26.25"

Originally used for pickling and storing various foods, this tall ceramic jar features a strikingly dark glaze. Set in high contrast by the unglazed lip and speckled with imperfections, the glazed surface exudes a rich luster and makes this jar the perfect place to house large foliage, indoors and out.
