

MING BRONZE HO HO BOY FIGURE

$4,280

Fine cast bronze figures created over 400 years ago during China's Ming dynasty are rare and highly appreciated by collectors. In this exceptional example, a spirited young boy stands on a lotus blossom with a sash draped across his chest. Traditionally, this type of figure is called a Ho Ho boy, and the faint traces of gilt and lacquer on his torso indicate that the figure was originally ornately decorated.
