Cultivated in all parts of China, the chrysanthemum is esteemed for its variety of forms and rich colors. This favored flower is carved in a graceful repeat motif on the apron of this exquisitely crafted 19th-century pine wood table, complemented by graceful, floral-accented curved legs. Once used in ancestor worship ceremonies, the table exhibits remnants of the green and red lacquer that once enhanced its beautiful detailing. Displaying classic lines with just the right amount of embellishment, the table makes a gracious entryway table or buffet sideboard.
