PAIR OF COURTYARD DOORS

$3,980

c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Northern Elmwood, Iron • Collection #DOOR001

W: 52.0" D: 6.75" H: 82.0"

This imposing set of doors is over a century old and probably once opened onto the courtyard of a Qing-dynasty home in China's Shanxi province. Made of elmwood, the doors have developed a worn, rustic appearance over the decades exposing the wood grain. Hobnailed iron trim bands the top and bottom, matched by an impressive latch. Leaning against a wall or standing against a garden fence, the doors have a striking presence.

Dimensions listed describe the doors as a pair.
