PAIR OF MING PAINTED COMPOUND CABINETS

$52,980

c. 1600 • Shanxi, China • Northern Elmwood, Lacquer • Collection #DVA054

W: 44.5" D: 20.25" H: 102.0"

Seamlessly constructed and lacquered black, this pair of spectacular Ming-dynasty compound cabinets provided the perfect blank canvas for painted scenes of figures and horses in a garden landscape. Still vividly colored after centuries of use, the lavish decorations cover the cabinets from top to bottom, complemented by brass moon and dagger hardware. Used to store garments, the compound cabinet stacks a small storage chest for hats or out of-season clothes on a regular-sized cabinet that stowed everyday garments and bedding.
