DECO PERSIMMON PHOENIX TAIL VASE WITH WHITE CRANE

$980

c. 1920 • Zhejiang, China • Porcelain • Collection #ZZZ060D

H: 22.75" Dia: 9.75"

Drawing on the enduring phoenix tail form that dates to China's Bronze Age, this porcelain vase from the 1920s exhibits the sinuous lines and gilded refinement that helped to define the Art Deco style of the early 20th-century. Glazed rich persimmon, the vase is painted with an auspicious white crane, a symbol of longevity, expressively rendered amidst gestural gold linework.
