ROSE BULB VASE

$398

c. 2000 • Zhejiang, China • Ceramic, Porcelain • Collection #BJEE076

H: 15.5" Dia: 8.75"

With a low round body, tall neck ending in a round bulb this design is called a garlic-headed vase (or suantou ping). It was made by a modern artist in Zhejiang Province, but for centuries Chinese ceramicists have redesigned and reinterpreted the same beautiful, ancient forms. Rendered in a striking shade of rose pink, this classic design takes on a modern look.
