DUSTY ROSE PHOENIXTAIL VASE

$180

c. 2000 • Zhejiang, China • Porcelain • Collection #BJEE077

H: 10.25" Dia: 6.25"

This finely crafted vase was made in China's Zhejiang Province and is modern, but has a distinctive shape inspired by a much older style first seen centuries ago in the Bronze Age. Phoenixtail vases are characterized by their flaring mouth, stem-like, slender body, and wide feet. The brilliant pink glaze is unique and when paired with this traditional ceramic style it becomes a striking statement piece.
