PROVINCIAL ARCHED AND CUSPED TABLE

$5,880

c. 1850 • Shanxi, China • Walnut • Collection #X079

W: 75.25" D: 15.5" H: 32.75"

Long, narrow tables, like this one, were originally designed to hold a Chinese musician's musical instruments, but over time became widely popular. The artisan added personal touches: notably, the rounded legs and arched and cusped apron. This provincial table was hand carved over 150 years ago in the Shanxi region of China, and with age the walnut has achieved a wonderful feel and glow.
