PROVINCIAL SPLIT LEG STOOL

$880

c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Northern Elmwood, Iron • Collection #BJGG030

W: 17.5" D: 13.0" H: 16.0"

With its organic form and irregular texture, this provincial split leg stool would have been the ideal seat for a Qing-dynasty scholar. This type of natural formation was prized by Chinese artists as a source of inspiration for painting, poetry, and calligraphy. With its warm patina and antique iron repairs, its likely this stool has been well-used for generations. Today, the gnarled stool is an easy to add rustic charm to a modern space.
