RED LACQUER LUTE TABLE

$2,680

c. 1950 • Shanxi, China • Northern Elmwood • Collection #BJDD007

W: 71.0" D: 20.5" H: 24.0"

With its minimalist shape and broad planes of red-lacquered elmwood, this mid-century lute table redefines the traditional Chinese aesthetic of refined lines and respect for natural materials. The table's profile is modeled on traditional lute tables, which provided a long surface to support and play a stringed instrument called the qin. This modern update plays up its architectural lines in solid block legs and substantial tabletop, while its woven reed inset top and glossy red-lacquered finish pay tribute to its revered forebears.
