$15,800

c. 1850 • Shanxi, China • Northern Elmwood • Collection #X021

It's amazing these eight courtyard panels with linear lattice screens have managed to stay together throughout the past 150 years of China's recent history. They call to mind an aristocratic provincial Chinese home with neutral and balanced interiors. The lattice pattern is very linear and open, designed originally to allow light and air into a room while maintaining privacy. The very top and bottom panels are cushion carved with wonderfully aged beading.
