SPINACH JADE BOWL

$1,380

c. 1850 • China • Wood, Jade • Collection #CMKH072

H: 4.25" Dia: 5.0"

The “spinach green” jade from which this finely shaped bowl was carved has natural russet inclusions offering added beauty and depth to the rich color of this prized stone native to Siberia. This particular jade was a popular import to China during the 19th century. Only a very practiced artisan could carve the stone to achieve the delicate, almost eggshell weight of this fine example.
