

SPRINGTIME PHOENIX TAIL VASE

$1,480

c. 1900 • Zhejiang, China • Porcelain • Collection #ZZZ102D

H: 17.25" Dia: 7.25"

Sculpted in a traditional Chinese phoenix tail vase form, this elegant early 20th-century vase is adorned with a scene of magpies flitting between branches covered in cherry blossoms. Regarded as a bird of good omen, magpies bring joy and good fortune to those who encounter them. Paired with cherry blossoms, symbols of beauty and springtime renewal, this decoration is a powerful wish to achieve the joy of spring.
