TERRACOTTA BRUSH REST

$388

c. 1850 • Northern China, China • Ceramic • Collection #NN134

W: 5.0" D: 3.75" H: 4.25"

Pausing in thought, a scholar once rested his calligrapher's brush on this terracotta brush rest. With an undeniably organic shape, the holder provides two open spaces upon which to rest a brush or two while protecting the paper from wayward ink. We see this wonderfully abstract object performing any number of desk duties, or simply displayed for its intriguing sculptural form.
