TIERED JADE DRAGON CHARM NECKLACE

$300

Shanghai, China • Jade • Collection #CJLDN446SZ

W: 4.5" D: 0.5" H: 10.25"

Created by artisans in Shanghai, this beautiful statement necklace features three early 20th-century jade pendants, likely once looped over robe fastenings as a decorative charm. Valued for its rarity and lustrous appearance, jade has been thought to symbolize excellence and purity of human virtue. Worn as jewelry or as a protective charm, the stone was thought to imbue a person with a clear mind and pure spirit, and to guard against evil spirits or illness. These mottled green jade pendants are carved with an abstract image of a dragon, a traditional symbol of power, prosperity, and goodness. Continued...
