Handcrafted in China's Shanxi province almost two centuries ago, this tall elmwood cabinet was once used for storage in the sleeping quarters of a wealthy Qing-dynasty woman. An expression of classic Qing furniture design, this cabinet exudes timeless elegance with its clean lines, full moon brass hardware, and dark lacquer finish, worn beautifully with time. With three shelves, two drawers, and a hidden compartment, the cabinet provides ample storage space and is perfect in the modern home as a cupboard or armoire.
